Peaks Mill.

The farmers are wearing smiles since the rain.

Mrs. Ruth Kite, of Covington, was the guest of her uncle, Mr. James Haynes, and family, last week.

Miss Ella Carsner's school is out, much to the regret of the young man that had his tobacco patch close to the schoolhouse, for he could work with one eye on the tobacco and look at her with the other.

Mr. James Haynes has treated his family to a nice phanton.

Rev. J. K. P. South has been preaching at our schoolhouse for several nights, accompanied by Bro. Lenox, who leads the singing.

Rev. George Cleveland is to leave for Cuba this week to preach to the Cubans.

Miss Helen Stafford was the guest of Miss Bessie Smith last Sunday.

Miss Virgie Bacon and Miss Juliet and Miss Beulah Hockensmith visited friends at Switzer Saturday night and Sunday last.

Our clever candidates for jailer are calling on the farmers.

I wonder what has become of our Peaks Mill writer, the "Pet Pig?" I hope it hasn't got the cholera.

OLD BATCH.

[BY ANOTHER CORRESPONDENT.]

The full moon brought us luck--the rain and the revival.

The revival is in full progress, and every body delighted with the way in which Bros. South and Lenox are conducting the meeting.

Miss Lyda Phythian and Miss Maggie Haydon, of Thorn Hill, passed through the Mill last week, en route to Swallowfield to visit relatives.

Mrs. Emma Monday and daughter, of Monterey, are here, the guests of Mr. C. B. Haydon and family.

Mrs. Elma Talbott, of Frankfort, is spending the week with Miss Virginia Bacon.

The most prominent politician in Peaks Mill is Mr. Jas. Jenkins.

Rev. Mr. Nevins, of Switzer, was in the Mill the first of the week, attending the revival.

Miss Ella Carsner's school closed last Saturday, the scholars being well pleased with the way in which she taught them. We regret having to lose her from our village.

Miss Hannah Phythian, Miss Lula Haydon and Mr. Walter True, of Thorn Hill, were in the Mill the first of the week, the guests of Miss Virgie Bacon.

Miss Bessie was accompanied home last Sunday from church by Mr. John Rambo. Look out, William, or somebody will be left.

Miss Anna Hampton, of Stringtown, is here, the guest of Mr. Suter Stafford and family.

Mr. Jas. Jenkins is on the sick list this week, bad cold being the cause.

Mr. Razerbill Height, of Swallowfield, was here Monday on business.

Miss Julia Jacobs, of Switzer, is here, the guest of the Misses Hockensmith.

RED ROSE.

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid Fever that ran into pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all throat and lung trouble. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1. Trial bottles free at J. W. Gayle's drug store; every bottle guaranteed.

Forks of Elkhorn.

All the farmers are busy having their wheat threshed.

Miss Kate Singer, of Stamping Ground, visited her sister, Mrs. Vickers, this week.

Little Misses Jessie and Edith Hambrick, of Stamping Ground, spent this week with Miss May Hockensmith.

Mr. M. M. Allan has just returned from a business trip to Tennessee, where he bought 25,000 bushels of the best coal, which will be here for sale at the freight yard.

knows just how to steer a vessel to bring it safely through the shoals and out into the open. Just so the Encyclopædia Britannica is the one absolutely reliable guide for the voyage of life. One cannot go wrong if its teachings are followed. It tells the mistakes men have made; how others have succeeded and why. An intelligent man gets good from the experiences of others and steers clear of the rocks they ran against. The very presence of the Encyclopædia Britannica in a house gives the place an intellectual tone.

A library of thousands of volumes does not offer such an opportunity for successful home study and development as this masterpiece of literature. There is no more instructive reading on earth than that contained in its 30 volumes. To a life whose current runs toward the future, this great work is indispensable. Just now you can secure the
